Trucks Silver $34.99 pair (unless otherwise noted)

Trucks come in various heights and widths. Truck axle width should be closely matched to your deck width—or at least within 1/4 inch. Truck heights only differ by about 1/4 inch. If you use bigger wheels then you should either use higher trucks, risers, or both to avoid wheelbite (contact of wheel with deck).

RYAN SHECKLER Interview

CCS sat down with Ryan to talk about his first pro shoe with Etnies, how the Etnies STI Lab helped in the design and his plans for 2006.

So Ryan, you have a pro shoe on Etnies coming out. How did you first go about designing it?

We looked at a bunch of different shoes and I had a pretty good idea of what I wanted as well.

Were there certain things you definitely wanted it to have? Or not have? I definitely wanted to have a puffy tongue and a simple look.

How did you choose the colors?

I like black and white, so those were my two colors and then those guys [Etnies designers] came up with the other colors.

RYAN SHECKLER Interview

Did you use the Etnies STI Lab and how did that influence the development of the shoe?

Yeah, we definitely used the STI Lab and it has helped the shoe become way comfortable and last long too.

What is going on as far as the technicals? We hear the shoe has System G2 Gel in the heel and STI Level 2 cushioning in the foot bed.

The shoe is sick man! I like it a lot and there is the STI [technology] in it and it makes all the difference.

How does it make the shoe skate?

The shoe skates awesome. It forms to your foot and makes it really comfortable.

What kind of skating is it designed for?

It is made for all kinds of skating. Whatever skating you do, the Sheckler shoe is good for it.

Have you been skating a lot?

I have been skating a ton lately and learning a bunch of new tricks.

What's the newest trick you've learned?

I just learned how to do full cab flip backside lip slides down my 7 rail.

Is there any trick you're trying to get now?

I'm working on all my nollie and switch tricks.

Did the kicks help?

Yeah, the shoes help a lot.

What are your plans for this year? (tours, videos, competitions, etc.)

My plans for this year are to focus on skating street and getting interviews out in the mags and I am working on a video for Oakley at the moment. Also, I am doing the Dew tour and a few other contests this year as well.

Okay Ryan, it was good talking to you any last words?

I just want to thank everybody for helping me get to the level I am at today.
